Arista alla Tuscana
(Tuscan Style Pork Roast)

3 tsp chopped fresh rosemary
3 large cloves garlic, minced
1 tsp salt & pepper mix
2 lb boneless center cut pork loin roast
2 tbsp olive oil
5 large carrots cut into large chunks
5 baking potatoes, wedged
4 stalks celery cut into large chunks
3 sweet onions, wedged

Yield: 8 servings

1. Mix together the rosemary, garlic, salt and pepper.
2. Make deep cuts into the pork roast, stuff the incisions with the garlic mixture and spread any remaining mixture over the entire surface of the meat.
3. Heat olive oil in a non-stick stock pot over medium heat. Add roast and brown on all sides.
4. Place the roast on a baking pan (pan shouldn’t be too big otherwise the juices will dry out before you can use them) and put in the oven. Cook at 350°F for one hour. Check the roast periodically and baste with the pan juices, rolling the roast around from time to time.
5. After one hour of roasting, take 1 cup drippings from the roasting pan and put in a non-stick stock pot. Add carrots, potatoes, celery and onions. Over medium heat sauté veggies for 15 minutes.
6. Returned sautéed veggies to the roasting pan placing them around the roast and continue roasting for 30 minutes. The roast is done when the internal temperature reaches 155°F in the thickest part of the roast.
7. Remove the roast from the pan and place on the cutting board, cover with aluminum foil and let stand for 10 minutes.
8. Slice the meat and serve with the vegetables and pan juices.
German Pork

1 lb dried fruit (prunes, apricots, apples, pears)
6 thick pork chops
4 tbsp butter

Yield: 6 servings

1. Soak the fruit in water or cold tea for a couple of hours or overnight. Using tea will make a darker, richer juice.

2. Fry pork in butter, turning once to even out color.

3. Add fruit and the soaking liquid. Cover and simmer all together for 30 minutes, or until fruit is soft and pork chops are cooked thoroughly.

4. Serve with potato dumplings.
Green Beans & Pork

Yield: 4 servings

2 tbsp soy sauce
2 tbsp chicken stock
2 tbsp dry sherry
1 tsp sesame oil
1 tsp rice vinegar
1 tsp sugar
1/2 tsp salt
1/3 c vegetable oil
1 1/4 lb green beans, trimmed
1/2 lb ground pork
3 cloves garlic, minced
1/2 tsp ginger, fresh, minced
1 scallion, chopped

1. In a small bowl combine soy sauce, chicken stock, sherry, sesame oil, vinegar, sugar and salt; set aside.

2. In non-stick stock pot, heat vegetable oil until very hot but not smoking. Fry green beans over high heat, turning often until bright green, about 2 minutes.

3. Drain beans on paper towels. Reduce heat to medium. Add pork, garlic, ginger and cook, stirring to break up lumps of meat, about 3 minutes.

4. Add green beans and stir fry 1 minute longer.

5. Stir in reserved sauce and cook until liquid is almost evaporated; about 1 minute.

6. Transfer to a serving dish and sprinkle scallions over top.
